FIBRAMETIS -QKDBX Decorative Wire Drapery

FIBRAMETIS - QKDBX Decorative Wire Drapery redefines interior elegance with its finely woven metal mesh, blending the softness of textiles with the brilliance of metallic finishes. Designed to elevate interior spaces, it transforms walls, windows, and glass surfaces into artistic, light-reflective features, offering a touch of refined luxury.

Fibrametis -QKDBX Interior Metal Drapery

The Fibrametis - QKDBX Interior Metal Drapery is a meticulously woven metal fabric crafted from high-quality stainless steel, brass, or copper. Its soft, fabric-like texture paired with a luminous metallic sheen makes it ideal for enhancing both aesthetics and functionality in interiors. Whether used as wall panels, window coverings, or laminated within glass, QKDBX offers a sophisticated design solution that plays beautifully with light and shadow. With over 50 standard finishes and the option for bespoke patterns or custom logos, it adapts to a wide array of design visions. This versatile mesh introduces depth, elegance, and tactile interest to contemporary spaces, making it a favorite among architects and designers aiming for lasting impact.
