Mesh Drapery

FIBRAMETIS - QKTH Architectural Mesh Drapery is a luxurious woven metal fabric that redefines modern interior aesthetics. Merging the fluidity of fabric with the strength of metal, it offers an elegant solution for stylish applications. Crafted for contemporary spaces, it enhances wall panels, windows, and laminated glass with a rich, metallic texture.

Fibrametis - QKTH Architectural Mesh Drapery

The Fibrametis - QKTH Architectural Mesh Drapery combines flexibility, durability, and sophisticated design. Made from premium materials like stainless steel, copper, brass, bronze, or aluminum alloy, its fine metallic weave flows gracefully like fabric while maintaining the resilience of metal. Ideal for wall coverings, window treatments, and decorative glass lamination, this mesh enhances interiors with its unique interplay of light and texture. Available in more than 50 finishes and color options, it accommodates a wide range of design styles. Designers can also customize the drapery with personalized patterns, logos, or symbols, making it a truly versatile element in high-end interiors.
