Palazzo Fluted Glass Panels

GLASMETRA CFPFGP – Palazzo Fluted Glass Panel blends timeless architectural style with modern glass design. The vertical ribbed glass pattern is defined by precise flutes separated by fine creases, creating a rich reeded glass texture and subtle 3D effect. Light travels through the textured glass surface, improving brightness while maintaining privacy. Manufactured using premium tempered glass panel options and laminated architectural glass, the panel offers durability, safety, and design flexibility. Supplied cut to size and ready for installation, it suits residential and commercial interiors, including partitions, feature walls, doors, and façades.
