Branchy Decorative Laminated Glass Panel

GLASMETRA CFBDLGP Branchy Decorative Laminated Glass Panel combines natural elegance with sophisticated architectural design. Crafted from 6mm+6mm laminated safety glass, each panel features flowing organic branch patterns inspired by bare branches, reeds, and natural tree forms. Available in fabric interlayer and printed pattern variants, the collection offers warm tone, neutral tone, clear transparent, and white pearl finishes. With smooth and textured surface options, these panels deliver both visual beauty and practical performance. Moisture-resistant, durable, and easy to maintain, they are perfectly suited for hotels, spas, bathrooms, offices, and luxury residential interiors.
